Summary of Complaint Process (See 825-X-2-.04 for complete text)

- Part I: Initial Complaint
 - o This process is initiated by the Complainant filing a Complaint against the Complainee (an individual or entity regulated by the ASCORC pursuant to 825-X-2-.01(3)) within ninety days of the alleged incident.
 - o The Complainee shall then investigate the alleged incident and make a final determination concerning the Complaint.
 - o The Complainee's final decision must be in writing and be provided to the Complainant.
- Part II: Appellate Process
 - o If the Complainant disagrees with the Complainee's determination, then the Complainant shall appeal the decision to the ASCORC within thirty days of the Complainee's final decision ("appellate process").
 - o The Complainant may re-use this form to initiate the appellate process with the ASCORC, but the Complainant should specify whether this form is being filed as an initial complaint (Part I) or as an appeal (Part II).
 - o It is critical for the Complainant to specify whether this form is being filed pursuant to Part I or Part II and to follow the directions accordingly.
